GUIDE

Foreword

The purpose of the 1953 Edition of the PANORAMA is to record the story of the students, who for the past twelve years have embodied the spirit of Royerton High School.

Through the years, this book will become a prized possession to you. For in it will be your school days forever kept alive by pictures and phrases.

INFORMATION PLEASE

The dial is turned to channel R.H.S. The program now playing is "Information Please," starring the faculty as the panel and the student body as the quiz master. Many difficult problems are brought before this panel to be solved. They concern math, English, science, physical education, foreign language, business, history, art, agriculture, music, and home economics.

There are times when our questions may have seemed of little importance or foolish, but the panel always supplied us with information that we might solve our problems. Whether the question concerned today's assignment, or a personal problem, our teachers always sought to find the answer.

Class Will

I, John Burt, will some of my tough luck in sports, that I had in the past, to anyone who wants it.

I, Carol Robinson, being of feeble mind and weak body, will my absent-mindedness to any one who can get by with it as I have.

I, Ted Fancher, will the old number "50" to next year's guard.

We, Janet Armstrong and Marilyn Chisman, do hereby will to any junior girl the right to get engaged in her senior year, if she can hook herself a man.

I, Bernard Hottinger, will to a certain freshman girl who has the initials P. B., the right to go out with any senior boy she may choose.

I, Barbara Holbert, will Gilbert Gunkel the ability to get along with teachers as well as I did.

I, Jim Ray, being of sound mind and weak nose, will to Chick Robling the right to have his nose broken three times!

I, Robert Anacker, will No. 41 football jersey to any sucker that can stand the consequences.

I, James Fuson, will to anyone, football jersey No. 27, who can sit on the bench and yell as much as I did.

I, Byron Humbarger, will my evil disposition to Mr. French.

I, Lois Gilland, being of sound body and questionable mind do hereby will my seat in the assembly between two radiators, to anybody who can stand the draft.

I, Virginia Addington, will to any junior who is willing to play my old beat-up symbols in the band.

I, Gloria Eller, being of unsound mind, will my majorette job to any girl with nerves of iron. (You'll need them!!)

I, Janet McCord, hereby will my inability to understand people to anyone.

We, Don Gray and George Thornburg, will our ability to play intramural basketball to Stebbins' Boys.

I, Patricia Dixon, will to Sally Shelby the ability to sit in Civics class, never say a word and get straight B's.

I, Charlie Richards, hereby do will my white gym shoes and professional name (Charlie Hudson) to anyone that can fill them.

We, Betty Moore and Phyllis Long, will to Beverly Riggan and Beverly Wehlege, our confused brains and broken fingernails, accumulated in filing class.

Now that sports are over, I, Don Rees, will my flat feet and head to match, to Morris Turner.

I, Clarence Gibson, otherwise known as Gibby Gabby Gibson, do hereby will all senior rights to the juniors.

I, Mary Buchanan, will to anyone my desk near the register in the senior row.

I, Beverly Fogle, do hereby will to Pat Goode the right to flirt with any boy she pleases.

I, Janet Ertle, will to Kay Hurst the right to get into trouble (Boy trouble, that is!)

I, Peggy Dungan, hereby will my nice, warm seat by the register to anybody who wants it.

I, Susie Jackson, will to Barbara Foltz the job of keeping peace with Mr. Stebbins, about all the paper that gets on the floor and radiators next to the senior row.

I, Don Meyers, will my football jersey No. 38 to Forrest Durnal, if he doesn't get it dirty.

We, Shirley Collings and Elaine Hesson, will to any coming senior the privilege to look at magazines and sleep in the assembly as long as they have their Civics done first.

I, Mildred Heintzelman, will my ability to have a steady boy friend to Nancy Shreve.

I, Ronnie Ratliff, will my ability not to get my Civics to Bobbie Miller.

I, Carolyn Williams, will my shorthand book to any girl who can stay awake while reading it, in Mr. Isenberg's quiet assembly.

I, Jean Angel, will all the senior waste paper, that Mr. Stebbins is always complaining about, to the Senior Class of 1954.

I, Jean Addington, will my seat in the assembly to any cold-blooded junior who can stand the radiator!

I, Delma Wagner, being of sound body and questionable mind, do hereby will my civics book to any junior who will take as good care of it as I did by never reading it.

I, Roger Benner, will my civic book to Lewis Heaton just for the asking of it.

I, Judy Houk, will my trig book to any junior girl who likes to be the only girl in the class.

I, Ralph Smith, will the right to go to the lakes on the 4th of July to Gerald Robling, if he doesn't have to stay all night in Warsaw.

I, James E. Dawson, being of blank mind, do hereby will to my sisters, Pat and Lyle Dawson, the right to take care of John Stebbins in anyway they see fit.

I, Robert Tracy, will my tuba to anyone who will carry it. I also will my bookkeeping book to anyone who is willing to put in long hours of pushing a pencil.

I, Bill Wilhelm, will my old Dobbs to Dick Bunner.

To future band members, I, Mary Jo Madill, will the right to turn left on right flank signal whenever they please to do so.

I, Charlotte Snider, will to anyone who can stand goose pimples and wear cardigan sweaters all week, my seat in the assembly.

I, Ned McCoskey, will my desire to be a good basketball player to Monica Wright and wish her luck, that she might get fouls when her guard slaps her.

I, Sara Morgan, having nothing to will, will it to Sharon and Kay who couldn't use it anyway.

I, Charles Robertson, will my size 28 football pants to any player who cannot find a pair when suits are handed out next fall. I also will to John Wolte my seat in civics class.

I, Joe Ann Lawson, will refuse to will any will to anyone because I have no will to will.

I, Don Nelson, will to Bob Miller the right to take a three day vacation providing he has permission.

I, Donald Alexander, being of sound body and questionable mind, do hereby bequeath to any junior who wants it, my ability to be moved around in the assembly.

I, Merlyn Rowland, will my scribbled shorthand notes to anyone who has plenty of time to figure them out.

I, Lila Johnson Dalton, will to Estell Dalton, my ability to meet good-looking Cubans on the train while en route to New York.

I, William Lawson, will to Dick Banner the right to sleep in the assembly or classrooms at any time.

I, Ralph Meyers, being of unsound mind, do hereby will all my artistic ability to anybody that can get along with Miss McCoskey.

I, Harold Smith, being of weak body and questionable mind, do hereby will to any junior the key to the darkroom to sleep in.

Class Prophecy

Ladies and gentlemen, this is your television special events editor bringing you the tenth annual Homecoming of Royerton High School over RHS-TV. This celebration was begun back in the school year 1952-53 and has grown to be one of the grandest spectacles of all times. Festivities last for one full week and wind up with the final football clash of the season and a formal ball in the newly-constructed combination auditorium and ballroom.

The Senior Class of 1953 is being honored this year. Let's see what the members of the '53 class are doing now.

Here's one of our best know classmates, Senator from Indiana, James Dawson. Peggy Dungan is Jim's private secretary. We have two former athletes turned politicians. Bill Wilhelm and Byron Humbarger run the city's garbage collection. Their campaign slogan was "Bill and Byron's Best Garbage Collection." Sarah Morgan also has government connections. She owns "Morgan's Minks for Government Gifts."

Royerton School houses eleven 1953 graduates. Bob Anacker is head football coach of the undefeated Redbirds and Jim Ray is assistant coach. Both Bob and Jim played pro football until two years ago. Tonight they led the team to a 52-3 victory over Gary Froebel. Ronnie Rathliff is teaching math, Jean Addington is head of the English department, and Jean Angel is teaching the first grade. Shirley Collings is the physical education director. The television station, RHS-TV is manned by some '53 graduates. John Burt is newscaster and has a special program of "The Prevention of Alcoholism." This program is directed by Herschel Brown. Yours truly is special events editor and Mary Jo Madill is fashion editor. Betty Moore has charge of all commercials, and make-up director is Mary Buchanan. Roger Benner and Don Myers were contractors for the beautiful new auditorium.

Quite a number of our group are happily married. Don and Marilyn (Chisman) Nelson have twin boys, Mike and Ike. Don owns "Donnies' Used Car Sales." Ted and Janet (Armstrong) Fancher are living in Los Angeles where Ted owns the T & J Washing Machine Co. They have a five-year-old boy. Carolyn (Watters) Williams is in Nome, Alaska. Dick is a school teacher. There are five little Williams. Art and Charlotte (Rousch) Snider live in Texas. Art manages all the Sinclair filling stations and Charlotte is the Superintendent of the Houston Hospital. Lila (Johnson) Dalton is also in Texas. She and Fielden own a beef-cattle ranch. Barbara (Goode) Holbert is here in Muncie living in one of the old Ball mansions. Shorty is president of the Indiana Welders Association. Lois Gilland married Fred P. Clink, the millionaire coal dealer, and is residing in Hawaii. Pat (Dixon) Mathias was the third Dixon sister to marry the third Mathias brother. She is general manager of Walgreens Drug Stores.

Flame Hesson is a typist for Western Union in Indianapolis and Mildred Huntzelman is secretary to the general manager of Marshall Field's in Chicago. Delma Wagner is private secretary to the president of General Motors in Detroit.

Charles Richards made himself famous by winning the 500 at Indianapolis last year. His car was built by Jim Fason, owner of Fason's Full-Race Engine House. Another successful winner is Don Alexander who has raised the last three Kentucky Derby winners.

Ralph Smith and Bob Tracy are railroad presidents. Ralph heads the Nickel Plate and Bob runs the C. & O. Railroad. George Thornburg is a Commander in the Navy and is in charge of all the payrolls for the Indiana Naval Centers.

Virginia Addington is in New York City modeling at 545 5th Avenue. Joe Ann Lawson is a lady lumberjack in West Virginia. Sue Jackson is an airline stewardess for TWA. Ben Hettinger owns a greenhouse in San Diego. Don Gray owns a hot dog stand next to Ben's place. Dornie Rees has made his fortune by being original. He owns Rees' Beverage Co. His motto is "The Hottest Drink in Town. We Squeeze Onions in Texas." Jack McCord runs Jim's Beauty Salon in Boston. Neil McCoskey heads the crew of engineers who are busting the Trans-American Turnpike from New York City to Los Angeles. Bill Lawson is manager of all the Indiana drive-in theatres. Ralph Myers is cartoonist for the Chicago Tribune. Harold Smith has developed a new photography technique and has a portrait studio in Memphis. Clarence Green owns a large year-round resort on Lake Michigan. Janet Little bought Radio City Music Hall and converted it into the world's largest night club. Charlie Robertson is manager of Robertson's Rockettes. Phyllis Long is now appearing at Carnegie Hall as the world's only concert pianist who can't read music.

Ladies and gentlemen the floor show is starting. Stan Kenton and his band are playing tonight. He features three of our old classmates: Beverly Togle, Carol Robinson and Gloria Miller. Beverly is now known as Bev Fox, the glamor girl of the roller rink. Carol and Gloria joined Stan after winning Godfrey's Talent Show as a song and dance team.

The renowned author and world traveler has just arrived. How was Borneo, Marilyn Rowlett? Marilyn reports that in the interior of Borneo there are still some who have never heard of Roverton High School. I'm sure that will be taken care of in the next ten years.

This is your special events editor saying so long to the Roverton Homecoming and RHS TV.

Class History

Date: September 1940. Time: 1:30 p.m. Place: Royerton School. Event: The first day of school for twenty-five daring, wide-eyed, youngsters.

When the class roll was completed, we found it included the following names: Virginia Addington, Marilyn Chisman, William Lawson, Ronnie Ratliff, Don Rees, Ralph Smith, Harold Smith, Bill Wilhelm, Jean Addington, Mary Buchanan, Gloria Eller, Ted Fancher, Jim Fuson, Clarence Gibson, Judy Houk, Mary Jo Madill, Janet McCord, Charles Robertson, Marilyn Rowland, George Thornburg, Delma Wagner, Beverly Fogle, Elaine Hesson, John Burt, and Joan Lawson. Our teachers were Miss Briner in the west building and Mrs. Sprong in the east.

Four new people invaded our quiet second grade room. They were James Dawson from Winchester, James Ray from Cowan, Roger Benner and Don Nelson from Gaston. Our teachers for that year were Miss Bell and Mrs. Keesling.

We had one new class member in the third grade Byron Humbarger joined us from Eaton. Our patient teachers being Mrs. Quick and Mrs. Hayden.

In the fourth grade, Sarah Morgan came to us from Hartford City, and Carolyn Williams from Harrison Elementary. Our capable teachers were Mrs. Arthur and Mrs. Shroyer.

Our fifth year was interrupted by four newcomers. Carol Robinson joined us from Roosevelt, Shirley Collings from Garfield, Don Alexander from Phoenix, Arizona, and Peggy Dungan from Harrison. Our teachers were Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Frederick.

Five intelligent looking little people joined our number in the sixth grade. They were Phyllis Long and Bob Anacker from Harrison, Robert Tracey from Jefferson, Betty Moore from Garfield, and Barbara Goode from Oklahoma. Our teachers were Miss Richardson and Mr. Morgan.

In the seventh grade Charlotte Rousch came to us from Cowan and Don Gray from Washington. Ronnie Ratliff decided to come back home after three years of absence.

Seven newcomers joined us in the eighth grade. Don Meyers and Lila Johnson came from Wilson, Lois Gilland from Eaton, Bernard Hottinger from Noble County, Charles Richards from Cowan, Pat Dixon from McKinley and Sue Jackson from Harrison.

At this time we found ourselves going through one initiation after another, just as all freshmen must do. Two new people who struggled through this year with us were Janet Armstrong from Sulphur Springs, and Janet Ertle from Wilson Jr. High.

In our junior year, between sponsoring a carnival, giving a play and welcoming three new students we were kept quite busy. The new Redbirds were Nell McCoskey from Pekin, Ralph Myers from Central, and Jean Angel from Greenwich, Ohio.

Our Senior year has been crammed full of excitement. Out of our group has come the Panorama Staff, The Review Staff, and several members of the various sports teams. Joining us just in time to make Royerton their Alma Mater was Mildred Heintzleman from Cromwell, and Arthur Snider from Selma.

THIS IS THE STORY

At the beginning of the school year twelve seniors went to room 11 to combine their talents in the production of the 1953 year book. Being inexperienced, we depended a great deal on Mr. Phillips, our advisor. He explained the work that lay ahead and from this point our work began.

Throughout the months that followed, pictures were taken, ideas were collected and everyone bent to the task of getting the book into shape.

Proudly we present this, the 1953 Panorama to you. May you enjoy it as much as we have enjoyed making it.

Judy,

I wrote in here once or twice but I could never stop saying wonderful things about you. You are really the "best". ("Crazy Man!") I will never forget you and you had better not forget me. It is very difficult to put into words
 the many "fine" things I could say. So I will leave you with this thought & reminder. "Always consider me a link in your everlasting chain of friendship."

For ya!
